Many wines lacked fruit intensity and varietal character. Also some dull wines lacking freshness. Top wines showed all important concentration and lift plus well integrated wine making influences.

Good class. Gold winners have plenty of ripe cabernet character, supportive oak and mature tannins. A number of non-award wines already looking old! There were a number of Brett affected wines.

Stunning class of wines. Some heavy handed use of oak and also some over-ripe fruit characters detracted from some wines. Top wines had refinement, balance and finesse.

Too many extreme winemaking faults. Many wines picked over-ripe and lacked varietal definition. A weak class. One highlight
